BICYCLISTS HAVE RIGHTS.

Not Responsible If Horses Are Frightened by Their Wheels.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 30.—The supreme court of Minnesota today rendered a decision of decided interest to bicyclists all over the country.

A few months ago N. A. Thompson was driving along a Minnesota county road and met W. M. Dodge on a bicycle. Thompson's horse saw the bicycle, ran away, smashed the buggy to splinters and injured Mr. Thompson. The latter brought suit for heavy damages, but the supreme court decided in favor of the bicyclist. Judge Buck says in his decision:

"Bicycles are vehicles used very extensively for convenience, recreation, pleasure and business, and the riding of them upon the public highway in the ordinary manner, as is now done, is neither unlawful nor prohibited, and they cannot be banished because they are not ancient vehicles and they were not used in the Garden of Eden by Adam and Eve."

Accused of Conspiracy.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—The steamer Fontabelle, from St. Thomas and other ports in the West Indies, has among her passengers Eugene Wiener, an American citizen, who has been expelled from Hayti, accused of being an active agent in a conspiracy to overthrow the present government of that republic. Mr. Wiener is a native of New Orleans and has been in the general merchandise business in Jeremie, a seaport of Hayti, for the past twenty-six years. He disclaims any connection whatever with the enemies of the republic, and says that the decree of expulsion issued by the secretary of interior was unexpected. The decree was enforced by the chief of police of Jeremie, who only gave the suspected conspirator twenty-four hours to depart.

MARRIED THE LADY.

Then Broker Connell Found He Was Mistaken in His Catch.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—When J. Harvey Connell, a sugar broker with an office at No. 110 Front street, read a personal advertisement in which a lady of "noble birth" said she wished to form the acquaintance of an honorable gentleman, he called at No. 97 Lexington avenue for further particulars. He met Miss Anna Marshall and after a very brief courtship they were married. That was in February. A member of the household was Ernest Victor Marshall, who was known as the brother of the lady of "noble birth."

Connell looked up the antecedents of the pair and found that Marshall, so he says, had been arrested in Europe for swindling, with women as decoys. Mr. Connell has begun proceeding for separation and today Wm. H. Willis was appointed referee to hear the testimony.

Croton Oil in the Candy.

TRENTON, Oct. 30.—Lydia Overton, about eighteen, has been held under bail for a hearing before the grand jury on a charge of attempting to poison a companion, Bessie Wood, about the same age. About a fortnight ago a ball was given in Turner Hall, and both girls attended. Miss Wood, with others, began teasing Miss Overton by hiding her gloves and veil. To get even Miss Overton, it is alleged, gave them marshmallows and chocolate creams, in which there had been placed a quantity of croton oil. All the girls who ate the candy were ill, and Miss Wood's life for a time was in danger. Her mother made the charge, and an effort is being made to have the other girls make charges. The manufacturer who made the candy and gave it to Miss Overton may be called up.

SUICIDE OF A CLERGYMAN.

He Had Committed Murder and Had Been Adjudged Insane.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 30.—The Rev. Dr. W. M. Turney, who had been missing for several days, was found dead in a small cottage, in which he resided alone, at Falkville yesterday. The doors were securely locked and a half empty morphine bottle on the bed told the tale of suicide. Dr. Turney, who was a Methodist minister, was 72 years old. He married a handsome young woman, who was his third wife. Four years ago he became insanely jealous of her. One day he saw her talking to another man on the street. When she came home he choked her to death without warning. He was arrested, but was adjudged insane and sent to the state lunatic asylum at Tuscaloosa.

Six months ago the asylum physicians pronounced him cured and he was released, and the prosecution against him for wife murder was about to be renewed.

Poor Women Demand Their Money.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 30.—Over a hundred women, many with babies in their arms stormed the office of George M. Irwin & company's discretionary pool this morning. ## The Pope as a Mountaineer.

The present pope in his younger days was an ardent Alpine climber. A monument is now being erected at Pietrastornina, in the extreme corner of the Parthenian district, as a reminder of his exploits as a mountain tourist. In 1844 Gioachino Pecci was at this place to meet a fellow prelate. The ruins of the robber castle, that of the prince of Storno, which, according to the traditions of time and place, no man had ascended for many decades, aroused the ambition of Bishop Pecci. For the sum of twenty paoli he secured the loan of a shepherd's suit, and, rigged out in this style, he managed to reach what seemed to be an inaccessible height of two hundred and fifty meters. Pecci was at that time an apostolic legate. The monument commemorates the anniversary of these exploits.

The Heart of an Admiral.

A silver box was recently found at Aubonne, in Switzerland, containing the heart of Abraham Duquesne, the great admiral of Louis XIV., after whom the first settlement at Pittsburgh was named, and who was the only Protestant allowed to remain unmolested in France after the revocation of the edict of Nantes. His sons, who were banished, had placed the heart in the church of Aubonne, from which it is to be sent soon to Dieppe, Duquesne's birthplace.

An Ounce of Prevention.

Dr. James A. Law, the distinguished veterinarian, thinks that no one suffering with consumption should be allowed to milk cows or work in a dairy. In the matter of tuberculosis cows are more often slain against than sinning.

Cost of Feeding a Cow.

The cost of feeding a cow has now come down to $16 per year. This low cost has been made by one of the most successful dairymen of Ohio, whose income from each cow is never less than $60 a year. This low cost of feeding is due to the silo, and the high value of the product of the cows is due to liberal, good management and the high quality of the product. And it is generally the case that the man who succeeds in making a valuable product is the most economical in his business management—he makes at both ends, in fact.

High Government Authority.

No authority of greater experience on food products exists than Dr. Henry A. Mott, of New York. Dr. Mott's wide experience as Government Chemist for the Indian Department, gave him exceptional opportunities to acquaint himself with the qualities and constituent parts of baking powders. He understands thoroughly the comparative value of every brand in the market, and has from time to time expressed his opinion thereof. On a recent careful re-examination and analysis he finds

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder

superior to all others in strength, purity, and efficiency. Dr. Mott writes:—

"New York, March 20th, 1894.

I find Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder to be superior to all others, for the following reasons:—

1st. It liberates the greatest amount of leavening gas and is consequently more efficient.

2nd. The ingredients used in its preparation are of the purest character.

3rd. Its keeping qualities are excellent.

4th. On account of the purity of the materials and their relative proportions, Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder must be considered the acme of perfection as regards wholesomeness and efficiency, and I say this having in mind certificates I have given several years ago respecting two other baking powders.

The reasons for the change in my opinion are based on the above facts and the new method adopted to prevent your baking powder from caking and deteriorating in strength.
